

Your General Electric Warranty

(Save and attach proof of original purchase date such as your sales slip to establish warranty period)

How to obtain service – All warranty service will be provided by our Consumer Service Centers or by our authorized Customer Care® services during normal working hours. To schedule service, you can visit us at ge.com or call 800-GE-CARES (800-432-2737). Please have the serial number and model number available when calling for service. This warranty is extended to the original purchaser and any succeeding owner for products purchased for home use within the U.S. If the product is located in an area where service by a GE Service provider is not available, you may be responsible for a trip charge, or you may be required to bring the product to an authorized GE Service location for service. In Alaska, the warranty excludes the cost of shipping or service calls to your home.

Limited functionality operable one-year warranty for Refrigerator, Freezer, Electric/Gas Range, Hood/Cooktop, Washer, Dryer, Dishwasher, Icemaker, Disposer and Compactor products.

What is Not Covered: The above warranties and guarantees do not cover appearance items such as dents, scratches, trim, or porcelain finishes. Parts not critical to the operation of the unit or minor functional defects are not covered. Service trips to your home to teach you how to use the product or for improper installation are also not covered. If you have an installation problem, contact your dealer or installer. You are responsible for providing adequate electrical, plumbing, gas, exhaust, and other connecting facilities. Replacement of house fuses or resetting circuit breakers, and failures of the product if it is abused or used for purposes other than its intended use, or if used commercially, are not covered. Labor to move a Room Air Conditioner to a location where it is accessible for service by a technician when the air conditioner is in a commercial location is not covered. Failures resulting from modifications to the product or due to unreasonable use, including failure to provide reasonable and necessary maintenance, or damage caused by improper power supply, voltage fluctuations, accidents, fire, floods, or acts of God are also excluded. The warrantor is not responsible for incidental or consequential damages. Some states do not allow the exclusion of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitations or exclusions may not apply to you. This warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights which vary from state to state. To know your legal rights in your state, consult your local or state consumer affairs office or your state's Attorney General. Exclusion of Implied Warranties: Your sole and exclusive remedy is product repair as provided in this Limited Warranty. Any implied warranties, including the implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, are limited to one year or the shortest period allowed by law. Warrantor: General Electric Company, Louisville, KY 40225
